

Lucas Confalonieri, Architect

Project Architect – Design & Production

Lucas Confalonieri is a Project Architect with The Hezner Corporation. Lucas is a 2018 graduate of Iowa State University, and has worked with Hezner for six years. His responsibilities include architectural design and delineation, design development, and construction documentation. Lucas has worked on a wide variety of architectural projects since joining Hezner, ranging in scope from large governmental efforts to building re-cladding efforts. Lucas specializes in the use, implementation and coordination of BIM/Revit software and standards.

Project Examples

DABS-FEV Storage , expFederal, Karup, Denmark:

Production/BIM Corr.

Architectural services for a new deployable air force base consisting of multiple warehouse, storage and support facilities. Approximately 1,000,000 sf.

Lodging and Support Facilities, expFederal, Tyndall AFB, FL

Production/BIM Corr.

Architectural services for the completion of construction documents for a new 360 room hotel conferencing center and associated support structures for Tyndall Air Force Base in Panama City, Florida

Mundelein Bank Triangle, Mundelein, IL

Design & Production

Conceptual marketing and design services for the redevelopment of a 6-acre site in Mundelein IL; the site included a 200 unit multifamily residential component, 50,000 sf of retail and entertainment spaces and various public amenities.

Project Assignment:

Project Management, Design, & Production

Experience:

6 years With THC

Education

Iowa State University, 2018,
Bachelor of Architecture

Active Registrations

Architect - State of IL

Active Affiliations

NCARB Certified

Member of ALA